

Real Estate Forms Explained

In every real estate transaction your Realtor® uses standard clauses provided by the Ontario Real Estate Association. These forms are the legal binding documents required for you to buy or sell a home. Below are the most common forms you will see in a transaction, explained in plain language. Understanding what you are signing is essential to a successful transaction.

Form 100 - Agreement of Purchase and Sale

Form 200a - Listing Agreement

Form 300 - Buyer Representation Agreement

Form 310 - Buyer Customer Service Agreement

Form 320 - Confirmation of Co-operation and Representation
